Heavy Easter Traffic Over Holiday

—At Airport

Monday, when over 400 holidaymakers returned by air, was the busiest day of the Easter week-end at Patricia Bay Airport. About an equal number arrived at the airport.

Between April 10 and 14 close to 1,800 passengers were "boarded out" from the airport. To accommodate out-going traffic 23 extra flights were put on for passengers and four extra cargo flights, with three North Stars carrying the load, were needed to take care of the huge shipments of flowers to the east.

Incoming passengers boosted the flights by 23, making a total of 50 extra flights.

Aside from the "posy parade," traffic was on a par with last year. The floral shipments this year reached a record figure.

REPORT IS RELEASED

Source of considerable interest in the young municipality of Central Saanich, the financial report for the first year of operation, is released this week.

A copy of the report is published in this issue and copies will be made available at the Municipal Office in the near future.

The report must be published by the last day of March, according to the terms of the Municipal Act. This year the Act was not observed, owing to a delay in the receipt of the figures from the Saanich Municipality relating to contingent liabilities.

A petition was circulated among residents of the municipality and forwarded to the office of the Inspector of Municipalities recently asking for reasons for the failure of the municipality to publish the report. The Inspector, B. C. Bracewell, accepted the explanation of the delay.

Closed For Vehicles

Fulford-Swartz Bay ferry will be closed to the transportation of automobiles for three days next week. While the "Cy Peck" is undergoing her annual inspection on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 22, 23 and 24, the service will be maintained by motor launch for the carriage of passengers, express and mail only.

ISLAND PIONEER IS CALLED

Resident of this area for the past 67 years, Gerald Fitzroy Payne, of West Saanich Road, Sidney, passed away on Sunday, April 13. He had been suffering from ill health for a number of years.

Born in Bedford, England, Mr. Payne arrived in Canada at the age of 16. He was accompanied by his brothers and settled on Saturna Island. He made his home on the island for many years, where he was engaged in sheep farming.

During his residence on Saturna Mr. Payne made many trips into the interior. At different times he was associated with a number of interests in the early development of the B.C. mainland.

Mr. Payne was a notable source of information on island life in the early days and his recollections of the lack of law enforcement around the islands before the turn of the century were excerpts from history.

Shoal Harbor
Latterly Mr. Payne and his family left the island and took up residence in North Saanich. For many years they lived at Shoal Harbor.

Left to mourn are his widow, Elizabeth, and three daughters: Mrs. F. C. Adams, Sidney; Mrs. E. R. G. Richardson, of Comox, and Mrs. J. F. Dick, of Victoria; eight grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

Flood-gate Installed

In the aromatic stakes residents of the Sidney area agreed last year that the creek on Lochside Drive, near Fifth St. was the winner hands down. Depicted above, the creek winds its idle way to the sea and in addition to representing a paradise for mosquitoes and other undesirables it has been significant for its stench in past years. Department of Public Works has made a contribution to the reduction of the health-hazard recently. A flood-gate has been installed by the department. The gate will close at high tide and prevent sea water from surging up the creek. When the tide ebbs the flood-gate automatically opens and releases the water in the sluice.

Gulf Islands Appears at Last In Current Telephone Book

The Gulf Islands have come into their own. For the first time in the history of telephonic communications to the islands subscribers in the island area are listed under the heading of "Gulf Islands."

The telephone exchange in this area was changed last year from Mayne Island to the more comprehensive title. The change was made too late to appear in the directory.

Transportation is the prominent feature of listings in the Sidney section of the directory. In addition to the two freight services there are taxis offering transportation on land, sea and air. There is the T.C.A. and the bus depot in addition to the various listings of trucking firms.

The armed forces are also prominent. More than 35 military, naval and air force ranks are listed, including Lt.-Lt. B. A. Eisenhauer, who spells his name differently from the American General of the same name.

Increase

In all sections of the directory serving this area an increase is shown in the number of listings over the same period last year.

There are 103 listings set out in black face capital letters, which not only draw attention to the names concerned, but also serve to relieve the monotony of the page.

The Government of Canada has increased its scope with the addition of the National Defence department, naval storekeeper at Patricia Bay. This brings the government listings up to 10 numbers.

MARK 54TH ANNIVERSARY IN SIDNEY

When Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bowcott, of Sidney, were married in Hereford on Easter Monday, April 14, 1898, Mr. Bowcott was a regular soldier serving with the Hereford Rifle Volunteers.

On Monday of this week the veteran soldier and his wife celebrated the 54th anniversary of their wedding. Mr. Bowcott is 83 years of age and Mrs. Bowcott celebrated her 80th birthday on Thursday, April 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowcott arrived in Sidney in 1909 and operated the Sidney Bakery for a number of years. They later sold the business to Mr. and Mrs. H. Ingamells.

They have resided in Sidney for 43 years where they have taken an active part in many community affairs.

A group of friends, in addition to their three children and their families gathered at their home on Thursday to mark Mrs. Bowcott's birthday.

Their three children are Mrs. A. (Gladys) Thomson, of Victoria; (Gordon) Bowcott, also of Victoria; and B. Bowcott, of Sidney.

BIG BOAT LAUNCHED SATURDAY

Launched amid cheering crowds and assisted by the smashing of the traditional bottle of champagne, the 42-foot pleasure cruiser, Scaup, slid gently into the waters of Brentwood Bay on Saturday afternoon.

The vessel, which was constructed at Brentwood boatworks of the Clark Brothers, was launched by Mrs. K. E. Chown, daughter of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Taylor, of Deep Cove.

A group of about 50 people attended the ceremony to mark the christening of one of the largest pleasure craft to be constructed in the lower island area for many years.

The Scaup is equipped with twin 110 h.p. engines and has accommodation for eight persons. Construction was commenced about five months ago.

Guests from all parts of lower Vancouver Island represented many yachting groups of the area.

Built at Brentwood
Among the largest pleasure craft to be found around this waterfront area the new boat has been constructed by Clark Bros. Boatworks at Brentwood.

By no means the largest boat to be built at the local yards it takes its place among the prominent pleasure craft to leave the ways of the Peninsula.

Clark Bros. have devoted most of their time to the construction of fish boats and throughout the west coast fishing ports the name of the Brentwood outfit is respected by the men who live by the sea.

Products of the Brentwood yard have travelled further afield than B.C.

During the Second World War the shipyard was producing lifeboats. One 22-foot boat was produced every six calendar days. The schedule set by the government required this regularity and Stanley Clark recalls the days when a 16-hour day was inevitable in order to meet the dead-line.

Out of the Bush
The two brothers, Stanley and Henry, arrived in Brentwood 13 years ago, having previously operated a similar business in Vancouver. They carved their yard out of the bush and have steadily built an impressive business among B.C. fishermen.

The James Island Ferries and the Bamberton ferry, operated by the B.C. Cement Company, originated in their yard.

Concentrating on fish boats the brothers, and their staff, devote more than 80 per cent of their time to the manufacture of commercial vessels. Although their pleasure craft are becoming familiar to many watermen it is to fishing, second largest industry in the province, that Clark Bros. have hitched their wagon.

SEEK CAMPAIGN AGAINST LITTER

Executive of Sidney Parent-Teacher Association is pressing for an anti-litter campaign in Sidney.

In a letter to the Chamber of Commerce this week Mrs. M. Pope, secretary of the group, requested the chamber to install waste baskets on Beacon Avenue. The question was referred to the businessmen's committee of the chamber.

"Streets in Sidney compare favorably with any on Vancouver Island," commented George A. Cochran.

Most notable changes in the four years she has been away seemed to Mrs. Flint to be the fact that milk is now unrationed and fancy cakes can be bought without coupons. Clothes and gasoline, also off the ration list, sell at a price prohibitive to many English people as salaries are comparatively low.

"What did you have to eat?" is the opening question put to returning holidaymakers in England. Though rationing allows the harassed housewife very little meat, fats and sugar with which to concoct a week's menu, Mrs. Flint said she heard no complaints about food in England. Many young people have never known a different way of life and the older people are apathetic. Nor did Mrs. Flint hear talk of war, though many industries are now converting to war materials. Only complaints were of the high cost of living.

Ferry to Run May 26

The Sidney-Anacortes ferry is scheduled to commence the season's operations on May 26. An official of the company made this announcement at the beginning of the week. The date will be subject, he added, to the suitability of the wharf at Sidney.

L. G. Mouat Re-Elected President

L. G. Mouat was re-elected president at the annual meeting of the Salt Spring Island Rod and Gun Club held last Friday evening in the Mahon Hall, with 45 members present.

The other officers were as follows: hon. president, O. Leigh-Spencer; vice-president, Gordon Parsons; secretary - treasurer, Cyril Wagg; committee, Norman Ruckle, Mrs. Charles Hogen, A. M. Brown, W. R. Hobday, Desmond G. Crofton, Fred Morris.

The winner of the Coon Tail Shoot for the past year, was Gordon Ruckle who secured 32 tails and turned in his prize of $30 to the committee to be added to next year's prize money for the same competition.

New Derby rules were discussed and agreed on for only artificial lure and the water boundaries all to be open.

The club voted a donation of $50 to the Ganges Fire Brigade.

DEEP COVE DOG SAN JOSE CHAMP

Sho-Dee-Dee, of San Lu, champion Pekingese from the San Lu kennels, operated by Mrs. C. J. Lambert on the West Saanich Road at Deep Cove, was a successful entry in the recent dog show at San Jose, Calif.

The champion dog was awarded three points, being adjudged the winner's male and the best of winners.

Response To C. of C. Is Poor

—Postponed

Factors which have arisen in recent years leading to the future development of Sidney were enumerated on Tuesday evening by A. R. Alexander. Mr. Alexander was addressing the public meeting on transportation called by the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce.

"These factors," said Mr. Alexander, "require a new approach to the whole subject of transportation." Mr. Alexander listed the following features of the development of North Saanich:

The new highway, when completed, will put Sidney and the entire Peninsula within 30 minutes of Victoria.

The development within Sidney of a virtually self-contained shopping centre.

The recent completion of a school-building program which provides facilities comparable with those in the city.

A proposed addition to local hospital accommodation.

A tax structure which on the whole is lower than anything to be found in available residential property between North Saanich and Victoria.

Obvious Conclusion

The obvious conclusion from these five factors, suggested Mr. Alexander, is that this area will be more attractive to persons employed in the city of Victoria. There are many advantages, particularly for those who have families and who want to get their children off the streets of Victoria, concluded the speaker.

Mr. Alexander was speaking on behalf of the transportation committee of the chamber.

The response to the meeting was disappointing, commented Sidney realtor, D. Sparling, from the chair.

Mr. Alexander cited three basic needs of transportation:

"Residential development should increase considerably," he said, "but adequate transportation is a basic need for such development."

Transportation to and from the

FAILS TO COMPARE WITH SAANICH

Canada is the best place in the world and Sidney district the nicest spot in Canada, in the opinion of H. Rothgordt, who has recently returned to his home on East Saanich Road from a five-week trip to Denmark by air.

In one day he stopped in four countries, England, Ireland, Scotland and Denmark, when, for the first time in 39 years, he visited his home town, the seaport of Esbjerg, Denmark.

Mr. Rothgordt was very careful not to visit any farms where there might be cattle infected with foot and mouth disease, telling his friends that Canada had never yet been plagued with this dread disease. To his chagrin he was told soon after that this virus had been found in cattle near Regina.

In Denmark infected cattle are not slaughtered, he said. Cattle from that country where this affliction is ever present, are shipped to places such as Italy and Switzerland after first being inspected. He pointed out that there are three types of the disease, some fatal and some which can be cured, much like the different types of flu.

Before landing in Iceland on the route home, a declaration was requested stating that he had not been in contact with any cattle infected with foot and mouth disease. But in such declaration was required before entering Canada, he said.

Food and service in restaurants are wonderful in Denmark, according to Mr. Rothgordt, who at a beautifully appointed table in a Glasgow restaurant was served a scanty unappetizing meal by a dilapidated waiter in tails.

In Copenhagen he was served a steak dinner complete with all the trimmings plus Danish beer for $2. Clothes are dear, he said, and butter, which is exported to England, is cheaper there than in Denmark. Consequently many are going out of the dairy business.

There are few new cars in Denmark as they can be purchased only with dollars after obtaining a government permit. Of one aged taxi in which he rode, Mr. Rothgordt said, I felt I had paid more for my fare than the sale price of the taxi. Yet in Denmark there are beautiful roads built by the Germans during the war.

Air-raid Shelter
He noted that air-raid shelters are being built in Denmark and remarked he believed this was because of fear of the Russians.

Mr. Rothgordt spent most of his stay with his sister in Copenhagen, but found time to visit many places in Denmark. He found the country much changed in the almost 40 years he had been away and most of his friends scattered around the world. He visited his old school and also one of his former school teachers, now 80 years old, who still remembered him. Mr. Rothgordt also

Red Cross Drive Tops Last Year

The Red Cross drive in Gauges, covering the district from the top of Gauges Hill to Southey Point, topped the mark in 1952 with the satisfactory total of $1,177.

This exceeds last year's receipts by $150.

Canvassers responsible for this impressive total were: Mrs. M. Gardner, Mrs. E. Hardie, Mrs. W. Telford, Mrs. J. Sturdy, Mrs. A. R. Price, Mrs. V. Ramsay, Mrs. C. J. Zenke, Mr. F. Sharpe, Mrs. H. Carter, Mrs. Burr, Mrs. G. Lowe, Mrs. B. Cartwright and Mrs. Donald Jenkins.

NEW MEMBER
Lawrence Thienker was accepted as a new member of the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce at the regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening. His application for membership was proposed by Secretary A. Calvert and seconded by G. T. German, Sidney banker.

EDUCATION MINISTER ADDRESSES LAURIER CLUB

Total of $54 million has been spent on new schools throughout the province in recent years, Hon. W. T. Strath, minister of education, told members of the Laurier Club of Victoria in Sidney on Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. Strath was addressing the banquet of the club at the Hotel Sidney.

The minister spoke at length on a variety of subjects. He stressed the matters which led up to the announcement of a provincial general election for June 12.

President W. S. Kirkpatrick was in the chair and other well known figures included former Mayor of Victoria, P. George, Andrew Whisker, A. J. E. Ash, W. E. Pomphrey, and the newly selected Esquimalt candidate, G. Edgelow.

C. Aldridge, president of North Saanich Liberal Association, welcomed the visitors. "Come again, come again, North Saanich Liberals will surely make you welcome," he said.

A. J. Ash, Saanich M.L.A., introduced Mr. Strath. He admitted he had a difficult task since the guest was so well known as to need no introduction. The Saanich member paid tribute to Mr. Strath's ability and stated that he was one of the ablest men in the Legislature.

He had contributed much to education in the province, said Mr. Ash. Mr. Strath said he was pleased to be visiting Sidney and he paid tribute to the hotel, stating that Proprietor A. M. Dore deserves great credit for giving "this new beauty spot to Sidney."

Discussing the last session of the house, the speaker outlined the reasons for the break up of the coalition. "In January," he said, "We were confident with no thought for anything else. The other side had spoken of breaking it up—but not the Premier." He pointed out that some political traditions have been revered for centuries. "These traditions are sacred to us," he said.

Sacred Budget

He stressed that the budget of the minister of finance is a secret, and referred to Hugh Dalton, former Chancellor of the British Labor Government, who resigned immediately a leak took place in his department.

"Just one of those traditions we observe," he said. Mr. Strath pointed out that a cabinet minister does not discuss cabinet matters outside his colleagues.

He then referred to the renewal of the tax agreement between the province and Ottawa. The Premier could not go, so Hon. Herbert Anscombe went. "You know what happened," said Mr. Strath. Mr. Anscombe informed the press that agreement had been reached.

"The Premier first heard of it on the radio," he added. The former finance minister was asked to resign, whereupon Premier Johnson went to Ottawa and concluded a more advantageous agreement. "The province will get millions more," he said.

Following the resignations of the other Tory members of the cabinet the Premier decided that the gov-

CHINA AND CHILDREN APPEAL TO VISITOR

Being permitted to decorate a Wedgewood vase with her own hands was a highlight of Mrs. Thos. Flint's recent visit to England.

Mrs. Flint, who returned to Sidney Saturday from a six weeks trip to England, visited the new Wedgewood factory near her home in Staffordshire and it was there she was allowed to decorate a black basal vase, signing her name on the base.

The bright and clean new factory now has electric kilns, she said, but fine work is still done by hand. There the machine used by Josiah Wedgewood, first potter at the plant, is on display.

When Australia cut imports by 80 per cent the china business in England suffered quite a blow, said Mrs. Flint, explaining that china designed for Australia was not suitable for America. The English are hoping this will go on the home market as, for 10 years those working right in the factories have been unable to buy the product they help make.

Frustrated Export

If it is, china will be another "frustrated export"—a phrase coined for articles returned as surplus from countries to which they were exported, and put on the home market.

Most notable changes in the four years she has been away seemed to Mrs. Flint to be the fact that milk is now unrationed and fancy cakes can be bought without coupons. Clothes and gasoline, also off the ration list, sell at a price prohibitive to many English people as salaries are comparatively low.

"What did you have to eat?" is the opening question put to returning holidaymakers in England. Though rationing allows the harassed housewife very little meat, fats and sugar with which to concoct a week's menu, Mrs. Flint said she heard no complaints about food in England. Many young people have never known a different way of life and the older people are apathetic. Nor did Mrs. Flint hear talk of war, though many industries are now converting to war materials. Only complaints were of the high cost of living.

Well and Rosy
The children, who look especially well and rosy, and the old people are in the happiest positions; both getting extra rations and senior citizens free cigarettes as well.

While in England, Mrs. Flint attended the wedding of her husband's sister. For a wedding reception at home, she said, a permit from the government is required to get extra rations for the guests. However, as the amount allowed is inadequate, receptions at hotels are preferable.

The women of Staffordshire were eager to hear about life in Canada. Mrs. Flint was persuaded to address a Mothers Union meeting on "Life of Vancouver Island" and between reunion chats with her family and satisfying the curiosity of friendly questioners, wanting to know all about the life of Canadian housewives, she came down with laryngitis after the first week.

Mrs. Flint, who flew to England aboard a BOAC Stratocruiser and returned the same way, spent much of her time in England with her mother, Mrs. H. E. Broad, who wished to be remembered to the many friends she made in Sidney during her stay here last year.

Mr. Flint, proprietor of Beacon Motors, flew to Toronto to meet his wife, the couple returning to Sidney by air. En route they stopped at Salt Lake City. In a Mormon museum they came across an old and weathered marriage certificate of a couple from Cheandle, a town five miles from the Flint's home town, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire, where Mrs. Flint had been visiting.

HYBRID VEGETABLES PROVE TEMPERAMENTAL UNDER TEST

Hybrid vegetables grown at the Summerland Experimental Station have given variable results, says L. G. Denby. Some of the corn hybrids included in the trials have proved to be outstanding. North Star, Improved Carmelcross, Gold Rush, Golden Crown, Loana, Seneca Chief, Flagship and Huron have been particularly good. On the other hand, a number of corn hybrids have given unsatisfactory results at this station.

In the 1951 cucumber trials, in which 20 varieties were under test, two hybrids, namely Sensation Hybrid and Surecrop Hybrid, led the field for early and also for total yield. However, they were not superior in other respects to Marketer, the variety which as proven so well adapted for commercial production in the Okanagan Valley.

Onions
Several hybrid onions have been included in the trials, but to date none has been found superior to the standard varieties recommended for this area. The phenomenal performance exhibited by these same hybrids in the region where they were developed was not duplicated at Summerland.

Many of the tomato hybrids which were tried out did not perform well here. These hybrids have all been rated highly elsewhere for yield, quality, uniformity and other attributes, but under Summerland conditions their performance was not outstanding.

Thus the evidence indicates that, though there may be great possibilities in hybrid vegetables, optimum results can be expected only if the hybrids are made-to-measure, so to speak, to suit the climatic conditions and the market requirements of the specific region in which they are to be grown.

SAANICHTON MIDGETS

LOSE OUT BY NARROW MARGIN

(Contributed)
Saanichion Community Club is feeling pretty proud of their midget girls for the wonderful games of basketball which they played in the Vancouver Island and B.C. Midget Tournament at Nanaimo on Friday and Saturday.

Saanichion Midget Girls ran roughshod over Vancouver girls in their first game Friday afternoon with a 32-8 score for the locals, while the second game, Friday evening, brought another win for Saanichion with a 19-10 score over Alberni.

Brentwood Girls, who have been Saanichion girls' opponents all season, put up a good fight against Lake Cowichan in the semi-finals. However, Lake Cowichan emerged the final winners.

When Saanichion Girls and Lake Cowichan met in the final game for the championship on Saturday evening, the large gymnasium was packed and the rafters fairly shook. The noise from the spectators was deafening. Judging from the cheering, the local girls seemed to be very popular with the other teams. As one of the officials of the tournament said, "This game proved to be the highlight and hardest fought game of the series."

The local girls put all they had in their game against their opponents who were a much bigger team. After being down 8-4 at halftime, Saanichion came through to tie the score at the end of regulation game time.

All Tied
Three minutes of over-time play saw the score all tied up again. It was announced that in the second over-time period of play the first team to score a basket would be declared the champions and Lake Cowichan were the fortunate ones to score that basket, which gave them the championship.

Saanichion lost two regulars in the over-time periods.

The local Midget Boys did not fare so well as the girls, their opponents in both games having a definite edge with their overpowering height. However, the locals let

Community Club Fetes Mrs. Nancarrow

Members of the Saanichion Community Club held their final night's play for the current season, by holding a surprise party, Thursday evening, to compliment Mrs. Gwen Nancarrow on her forthcoming marriage to Douglas Balfour, of Victoria.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Looy, Saanichion, made gay with a profusion of lovely spring pfflowers, was the scene of the festivities. All members of the club had contributed towards a gift of Community Silver Plate, in the Evening Star pattern, and Bob Harris, as president of the club, presented the gift.

Mr. Harris made use of the occasion to thank Gwen on behalf of the members, for her untiring services to the club. In return, Mrs. Nancarrow thanked the club for their gift and good wishes, and expressed the hope that in the future she would, at least, be able to keep in touch with the Saanichion Badminton Club, by joining a Victoria club which competed in matches against them.

Mrs. Looy, assisted by other ladies of the club, served coffee and refreshments. Those able to be present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Looy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris, M. and Mrs. Randolph Mills, Mrs. Cochrane, Miss Drozdak, Mrs. F. Edgell, Robert Harris, Jr., Peter Young and John Webster.—M.E.

SAANICH CHAMBER TO PRESS FOR ASSISTANCE OF COUNCIL

The monthly meeting of the Saanich Chamber of Commerce was held at the Women's Institute Hall, Brentwood, on Monday of last week, with George D. Moody, president, in the chair and a very good attendance of members.

Reports of committees were heard in connection with the annual banquet which was held at the W.I. hall, Brentwood on Wednesday, April 16.

A letter from Major-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P., was read accepting an invitation to be present and reply to the toast of the Federal Government.

The meeting asked the chairman to get in touch with General Pearkes and try to have him give those present some impressions of his European trip.

The matter of the installation of a comfort station at the ferry landing for the convenience of motorists using the ferry, fishermen and visitors to the public park at the waterfront, came up again, following the receipt of a letter from the Central Saanich Council stating they would be prepared to consider making a grant towards the cost of this after the Chamber had exhausted all other sources from which money could be raised.

It was felt very strongly by the members that the council should announce the amount they would be prepared to grant before a successful effort could be made to raise funds to cover the balance of the cost of this very much needed convenience.

Personal Effort
Mr. Moody promised to make a personal effort to bring this matter to an early completion.

New members joining the Chamber included H. C. Oldfield, W. W. Michell, R. E. Hindley, V. J. Wood, G. R. Smith and Ernest Lee. The next meeting will be held at Saanichion.

At the conclusion of the business section Alderman Neely introduced W. E. Jopp, who has made a close study of various methods by which citizens express their preferences as to their representatives.

Mr. Jopp gave an address on the new alternative vote system, accompanied by demonstrations as to its effect on the selection of candidates. At the conclusion of his address the President expressed the thanks of those present.

OFFENSIVE ODORS

DURING the heat of summer last year The Review expressed an aversion for the odors that arose from a number of open ditches and sewers in various parts of the area.

While some were mildly unpleasant and others were objectionable one stood out alone. Of the rank it was the rankiest. Of the malodorous it was the most offensive. This particular creek was that draining into the sea at Lochside Drive and Fifth St. The attention of the provincial department of works was drawn to the situation.

Drivers who had occasion to pass the area had complained that the stench necessitated the closing of their car windows.

This week the department of works has acted in the matter. Crews have installed a flood-gate at the source of the trouble.

Although this may not fully eliminate the nuisance it is a step in the right direction. The flood-gate will serve to prevent the sea from backing up the creek at high tide.

CONTRIBUTION TO THE COMMUNITY

WE have a date for June 12. Each and every voter throughout this territory has that date. Premier Byron I. Johnson made it when he announced last week that the provincial general election would be staged at that time.

The greatest contribution to his community open to the man-in-the-street is to cast his ballot when an election is held. If every man and woman who was eligible to express an opinion in an election were to cast his vote a wholly different picture could be drawn of the future. At the present time such an aspect of the election does not appear to signify. Nevertheless it is by apathy alone that an undesirable element has gained control in other countries and it is by apathy that just such a turn of events could be possible here.

The three main parties concerned in provincial affairs have already made announcements regarding their candidates for the election. It is possible that others may yet appear. It is of no value to the community or to the individual to assume that the voter's choice will be of no significance. It is the vote of every last one of the persons whose names appear on the voters' list that influences the election.

The immediate duty of every person eligible to cast a vote is to ensure that his name appears on the voters' list. The answer may be readily ascertained from the Registrar of Voters and any resident who is not sure should immediately attend to it that his name is on the list.

NECESSARY FUNCTION

IN the life of every live community there are matters constantly arising which cause dispute among residents. No proposal can normally be accepted without finding opposition. It is neither democratic nor healthy to accept any form of legislation without discussion.

One of the basic services performed by any newspaper is the dissemination of information. Another feature of a newspaper within its own community is to serve as a mouthpiece to the responsible residents of the area it serves. It must carry any views expressed by local residents on matters concerning the district in order to function as a newspaper.

Recently a reader suggested to The Review that a certain correspondence be discontinued. This gentleman is a highly-esteemed member of the community and a good and valued friend of The Review. His suggestion, however, was not acceptable. He indicated the practise in many parts of the world whereby the editor of a newspaper notes that a certain correspondence is now closed. The author of the suggestion noted that this could be usefully applied to the subject of which he spoke.

While there is always the possibility that correspondence may become too heavy on any one subject it is not the policy of The Review to close any subject of correspondence under ordinary circumstances.

The request that this be done was received sympathetically, but while a controversy obtains in any part of the area served by this newspaper, the opinions of readers will be welcomed in the correspondence columns at any time, irrespective of the nature of their views.

PICTURE AGAIN
Editor, Review,
Sir:
Your issue dated March 6, giving the story of the 30-year-old school was forwarded on to me, and I would like you to know it was enjoyable reading. We lived across the street from that school for several years. It was interesting to hear when so many of those I remember now are living. To bring you up to date on my sister, Florence, and myself, I give you the following information:
Florence Hambley is now Mrs. Ray Maullin, residing in Seattle, Wash. Attached is a press release which you will note brings me back to Canada, and my duties will bring me to Victoria and Sidney from time to time. In fact I will be in Victoria the last week in May and plan to visit Sidney.
Several years ago I visited your office and talked with Joe Macleod who worked on your paper. Is he still there? I would appreciate your extending my sincere best regards to my former school principal, James Ramsay. The schooling received there in Sidney has been

Reflections From the Past

20 YEARS AGO

R. A. Sansbury and H. E. Kennedy will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McIntyre, Third St., Thursday evening to determine the challenger for the championship of B.C. on the McIntyre checker board, now held by H. O. Homewood. All desiring to witness the "battle" are welcome to attend.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Gilman a very successful meeting of the Sidney Tennis Club was held at her home Monday evening. G. A. Cochran was elected president and Miss Iris Goddard, secretary-treasurer. It was decided the club should enter a team in the Vancouver Island Tennis League. Arrangements are being made to open the club with an open tournament on May 24.

Local residents will have the opportunity, on Monday next, of visiting the station SYPS. The studio doors of Wesley Hall will able dispossessed villagers to survive.

The overall, binding rule of a monarchy was badly knocked around later by Cromwell, and others thinking of rebellion. But the general result being a strong union capable of meeting outsiders wanting to fight, ensures at this time continually expanding strength which may be called providential. Progress and general improvement may be had without more fighting, but it looks doubtful. The code of moral duties delivered to the English people, by the Roman church authorities, was received ages past in the form of notes inscribed on parchment. Obedience to rules laid out by Moses and Jesus Christ more than a thousand years earlier, were frequently passed over as negligible in the presence of dire necessity and never ceasing battle. The battle of Hastings in the eleventh century, was fatal to the British.

A new English order came into being as a result of the success of a Norman-French army. And the old Roman church readily assisted the conquerors. The Romans had much of the experience of similar events to guide them. Looting their Saxon King, and being unlearned as to more favorable methods of combat, the disunited villagers were either slaughtered or driven into hiding. But children kept growing up.

Overlooking a fertile stretch of lowland from the rim of Salisbury Plain, the invaders discovered the present site of Edington, and built a church, and a monastery with a five-acre garden and a garden wall fifteen feet in height. Unfenced wild land was laid out for profitable farm work, ditched, graded, cropped and rented out to the amazement of heads knowing little of the methods of ancient Roman, at the moment taking shape under their eyes.

25 YEARS AGO

The Junior Section of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce seem to be persistent in their endeavor to establish an auto ferry service to Salt Spring Island, having recently appointed a committee to gather information and get in touch with various organizations in order to speed things up. However, we can see no immediate service looming up in that connection since C.P.R. has announced that the "Charmar" will carry cars on the run from Victoria to Vancouver via the Gulf Islands, but hope we are mistaken in our conclusion.

The North Saanich Social Club held their monthly dance in the club hall, School Cross Road, on Wednesday evening of last week. The N.S.S.C. six-piece orchestra for whom the dance was put on, played excellent music. The orchestra has now entered the professional field, owing to the excellent manner in which they have progressed during the year.

Members of the Sidney Social Club journeyed to Victoria on Wednesday evening and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McKay. An enjoyable social evening was spent, military 500 being played at four tables. Brisk playing for 20 hands resulted in the first prize being presented to Mrs. J. Hambley, Mrs. Gowan and Mrs. W. Robinson. High score prize went to Mrs. J. Crossley and N. Prallek.

The Amateur Gentleman, starring Richard Barthelmess, will be shown at the Auditorium Theatre tonight. The picture hurries along at a fast clip and is full of exciting incidents.

The North Saanich Social Club held a paper chase for the children on Tuesday. Twenty-one children took part in the race. After an hour's run the hares (Dorothy Carter and Clifford Hill) raced home in good style to the club house, quickly followed by the pack, and all were refreshed with lemonade and cake provided by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the club.

Extract from a poem by Robert Chalmers Sloan:
Every now and then from Paris Comes another fashion whereof, Girls take notice during Summer You must drap your shapely knees.

30 YEARS AGO

There was a splendid attendance at the Board of Trade meeting last Tuesday evening, and a considerable number of questions were discussed. A delegation will go to Victoria to take the matter of the Anacortes-Sidney ferry up with the provincial authorities. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the question of including the Experimental Farm in the rural distribution from Sidney.

Some people will soon be getting jealous of the wonderful progress of the port of Sidney. The S.S. New Fern, the motor launches, Elsie of Roche Harbor, and the Aristo of Salt Spring Island, the Gem of Sidney Island were all in at once, besides a fleet of launches delivering claims to the local clam factory. What will the harbor look like when the ferry gets going.

job; shopping service for the housewife and recreation service during the evening hours are required, asserted Mr. Alexander.

Await Ruling
R. H. Tye appeared for the Vancouver Island Coach Lines Company. On matters of company policy he was obliged to await a ruling from his superiors, he observed.

Mr. Sparling suggested that there are many residents of Deep Cove who are dissatisfied with the present service. The two areas most concerned, he summarized, are Deep Cove and those living between the East and West Saanich Roads.

The meeting was postponed until Tuesday, May 20, when representatives of the coach lines company will be invited to answer fully all questions on the matter. It is also hoped to encourage a greater number of residents to attend and express their views.

To Attend Parley Of Fur Breeders

Harry McNichol, mink farmer, of Newman Road, Saanichton, left on Monday to attend the conference of the Dominion fur breeders in Ottawa. Mr. McNichol will visit his former home at London, Ontario, during his stay in eastern Canada.

Entertaining Ideas

Some people like spur-of-the-moment entertaining; others find it quite upsetting. As far as food is concerned, it isn't hard to have some easy-to-fix snacks ready for impromptu occasions.

It isn't necessary to always have cake or cookies for something sweet. The home economists of the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture have two suggestions that come out of the bread box instead of the cookie jar. The first is called "Toasted Cinnamon Squares." To make these, cut very fresh bread in cubes about one and one-half inches in size. Spread each cube on all sides with butter and roll in a mixture made of equal amounts of fruit and brown sugar, with cinnamon to taste. Place the cubes on a buttered cookie sheet and bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees Fahrenheit, until they are well browned, about 5 minutes. They are delicious served with afternoon tea or coffee.

Bread Fingers

The other suggestion is for "Bread Fingers." They are also easy to make and can substitute for cake. Slice day-old white bread three-quarters of an inch thick. Trim off the crusts and cut into strips, making them about three-quarters of an inch wide and two inches long. Spread the strips on all sides with condensed milk, covering well. Then roll in shredded coconut and brown under a broiler.

In the food line, the home economists say that "make-your-own sandwiches" are just the thing for such a party. Thick slices of assorted bread and meats such as corned beef, salami, ham, head-cheese or bologna may be set out on the table. Cheese spreads or strong cheese are favorites too. Don't forget the extras—mustard, chili sauce, dressings and relishes—no Dagwood-type sandwich is complete without them.

A pot of beans, piping hot, is still another favorite with the menfolk. Set it in the middle of the table with a big plate of rye bread beside it and let each one help himself. One can never go wrong with desserts, for most men have a sweet tooth and enjoy doughnuts, chocolate cake or apple pie. They like apples and other fresh fruits too. Top off the snack with good, strong coffee, making sure there's enough to go around twice.

Whatever the type of entertaining, everyone likes attractive food. With the number of guests available today, it isn't hard to make food look appetizing. Usually all that is needed to prepare most garnishes is a sharp paring knife, a pair of scissors and a little imagination.

Edible Flowers
Everyone loves flowers, so why not decorate food with edible ones? The punch bowl will take on an added party air if maraschino cherry roses are floated in it. They are simple to make. Just cut a green and a red cherry into eighths, making the cut only half-way down. Spread the cherries open, then put the red one inside the green one and fasten the two together with a toothpick. Don't forget to break off the end of the toothpick. These cherry roses can also be used to garnish fruit salads or cocktails and many desserts.

Cheese is wonderful for many garnishes. Finely grated Cheddar, processed or cream cheese that can be easily moulded is best to use. You don't have to be an artist to make the pumpkins, carrots, strawberries

An old-time Sidneyite and a "great booster" for this burr passed thru Sidney last Thursday afternoon on his way to Lopez Island, in the person of R. L. Pickering, who spent over three years in Sidney as local manager of the Telephone Co. He was accompanied by Mrs. Pickering and family.

The Voice Carried

(From the Blue Bell)

Most telephone people know, but many outside persons do not, that a voice can be sent through the telephone even though the transmitter is held against the chest. This sensitive quality of the telephone instrument once broke up a beautiful friendship, it is reported. It seems that one wife called another to extend an invitation for the evening. The woman receiving the call placed the transmitter against her chest, turned to her husband and said, "We don't want to go, do we? All they'll want us to do is play canasta." The other party slammed down the receiver and that was that. Although we have no further information on this unfortunate incident, we have a hunch that the reluctant couple must have been bride players.

The Review's Book Review

"The Deceivers," by John Masters. Viking Press. 234 pp. $3.75.

After the Night-runners of Bengal there can be no doubt that Mr. Masters has sufficient acquaintance with the early history and customs of India to be able to take his readers into an absorbing and realistic India of a century ago.

His new book in no way falls short of his previous story. This in itself, is a novelty. So many writers attempt to trade on a reputation gained from one novel without success.

The Indian goddess, Kali, had many followers Hindu and Mohammedan her followers mixed without regard to their racial differences. Kali had a means of making her followers appreciate the gifts she bestowed on the successful.

In history it was William Sleeman who made the greatest contribution to the elimination of Thuggee, says the author in a note. He is a figment of the author's imagination emphasizes Masters. He is, however, an excellent figment.

This is the story of a man in India when India was but recently come under the influence of Britain. It is an enthralling story and treats of a little known but ancient and widespread criminal conspiracy. They were activated entirely by religion and the return it brought them. It has been estimated that well in excess of a million Indians lost their lives to these thugs.

The story will hold the reader from the beginning. Today the term thug has come into the English language and is frequently used to indicate the modern gangster. It is unlikely that the modern gangster can equal his namesake in cold-blooded callousness, however, fervently he may try.—F.G.R.

Insect Damage

Turning to public museums, Mr.
Straith said that Totem poles, so much a part of B.C.'s history are falling into ruin due to damage by insects. The art of making the poles is dying out, "So we had to do something about it," he said. An old craftsman who will train three youths in the art has been located, and the future of these historic relics is now assured.

Mr. Straith was thanked for his interesting talk by D. Sloan, vice-president of the Laurier Club.

Among members of North Saanich Liberal Association attending were:

ney group would not operate a

DOUBLE-RING CEREMONY JOINS NESTA WALTERS, CHARLES MAY

At St. George's Church, Ganges, Braine, of Vancouver, cousin of the bride, and Miss Beverly Rogers, the former wore pale yellow taffeta, similarly styled to that of the Maid of Honor, she carried a bouquet of yellow tulips and blue iris. Miss Rogers chose a pinky-mauve floor-length nylon gown of lace and satin with a bouffant skirt and a tiny net cape worn over the strapless bodice, she carried a bouquet of yellow tulips and blue iris. All three attendants wore similar bandeaux of pastel flowers, with chapel veils and elbow-length mitts to match their gowns.

Ven. G. H. Holmes officiated at the ceremony, which took place in a lovely Easter setting of daffodils, dog-tooth violets and other Spring flowers, with pews marked with small Colonial bouquets of pink hyacinths and plum blossom. Mrs. V. C. Best played the wedding music.

The charming bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of ivory taffeta, the very full skirt, studded with white roses, was covered with nylon net inset with lace panels. The fitted lace bodice had a high neckline with mandarin collar, cap sleeves and long gloves. Her long veil was held in place with a small lace cap edged with tulle and entwined with pearls and her only ornament was a ruby and diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Gwenydd Walters was her sister's maid of honor, wearing a floor-length gown of pale blue taffeta with full nylon overskirt. The bodice was strapless with small bolero and she carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and blue hyacinths.

VARIETY PROGRAM

STAGED BY SCOUTS AND GUIDES

A successful Variety Entertainment, sponsored by the 1st Ganges Scout Troop and the Salt Spring Island Girl Guides, was held recently in the Mahon Hall, under the direction of Scout Master Elvan Walters and Mrs. G. E. Reynolds, Captain of the Guides.

Following the singing of "O Canada," J. B. Acland, president of the Scout committee, gave a talk on Scouting and Guiding in which he stressed the necessity of parents' co-operation.

Items on the program included "Masked Faces," a Scout Master's Nightmare, carried out in dumb show by the majority of the Scout Troop; a short playlet "Tending Baby," in which Guides Sylvia Wagg, Susanne Banks and Doris Silvester appeared; pianoforte solos by Diane Carlin and Joan McDonald; "The Statue," a skit, very well received by the audience, the parts being taken by Ian Wells, Robert Reynolds, Bob Patchett, Ronald Cunningham, Douglas Greenhaugh, Michael Evans, Kenneth Donkersley; "Turn Back the Hands of Time," a trio sung by Norma Evanoff, Patricia Wells and Arlene Reynolds accompanied by Joan McDonald.

Feature Attraction

The feature attraction was an Arabian play in costume, "Twice is Too Much," in which both Scouts and Guides combined their efforts, Frank White and Heloise Pfeigh appeared in the leading roles, the supporting cast including Bernard Dodds, Shirley Silvester, Diane Carlin, Bill Coleman, Leslie Fraser, Donald Cunningham, Bob Patchett, Kenneth Johnson, Douglas Greenhaugh.

Following a short intermission there was a front curtain skit by Frank White and Robert Reynolds followed by an amusing sketch, the "Tea Party," exceptionally well portrayed by Lynne Young, Janice Hepburn, Patricia Wells, Arlene

The "Camp Fire" scene, in the completely darkened hall, was most realistic and effective and greatly appreciated and applauded. At the invitation of Mr. Acland, Freeman King, Commissioner of the Boy Scouts Association, Victoria, came on the stage and led the camp fire songs.

Talk on Scouting

Mr. King thanked the Scouts and Guides for inviting Mrs. King and himself to the entertainment, which they had both enjoyed, and gave an interesting talk on Scouting, Guiding and co-operation in all phases of the movement.

Mrs. Reynolds briefly thanked the audience for supporting the entertainment and explained the Guides share of the proceeds would go towards the travelling expenses of Joan McDonald, one of the two girls selected for the Saanich Division to go to the National Camp in Ottawa.

Mrs. Freeman King, the Guides Divisional Commissioner, and Mrs. E. Charlesworth, District Commissioner, were both present.

We don't know everything, but—

Only a few decades ago most people thought that everything would soon be known; that everything would be discovered; and that all scientific data would be recorded in its proper place. The fallacy of this has become evident. The more people know and learn, the greater becomes the unknown. When compared with the sum total of all knowledge, pharmaceutical knowledge seems insignificant indeed. However, when a prescription must be compounded to restore health or to save life, pharmaceutical knowledge surpasses all other things in importance. We are not omniscient, but when it's medicine you need we are prepared to meet every emergency.

TEEN TALK

(Contributed)

What is the biggest social activity of the modern teen-ager?

Dancing is by far the greatest social activity that the modern teen-ager participates in. To most teen-agers it does not matter whether he dances in someone's house, at a party, in a school gymnasium, in a barn at a barn dance, in a dance hall with a six or 16-piece orchestra, or in a building with a poor floor and records for music; as long as he dances.

At a few of the gatherings mentioned above a teen-ager will not find himself associated with his own kind or will have dealings with persons who would not be of help to him as a growing adult of tomorrow.

The Teen Town, which consists of teen-agers, ages 13-19, endeavours to give a teen-ager a good, clean dance two or three evenings a month.

Dancing is the only social activity the Sidney Teen Town has given to the teen-agers of the district up to now. The reason for this is that it is the only method the Teen Town has of raising money to further other activities.

In the future the Sidney Teen Town hopes to start a sports program if funds keep coming in as they have been. The teen-agers of the district have supported the Teen Town to the full, which is very gratifying.

EGG PRICES UNCHANGED

Egg prices remain unchanged, but some shading up and down in values still prevails. A slight surplus is reported by operators, which is moving to coolers, and this has reduced volume of prairie stock arrivals. Retail sales are slack, fair movement to up-coast points is reported.

Flock liquidations are increasing and fowl volume is heavy. Prices are weakening. Broilers are in good supply. Sales are better and retail demand is up. Easter week demand is good.

BIG ORDERS FOR BRITISH JETLINERS

Orders worth $45 millions—one third for overseas airlines—have been placed with U.K. aircraft builders for 115 gas turbine powered civil airliners. These include 45 de Havilland "Comets", 44 Vickers "Viscounts" and 26 Bristol "Britannias".

THE CORPORATION OF THE DISTRICT OF CENTRAL SAANICH

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Reeve and Councillors of The Corporation of the District of Central Saanich, Saanichton, British Columbia.

I have examined the Balance Sheet of the Corporation of the District of Central Saanich as at 31st December, 1951, and the Statements of Revenue and Expenditure and of Cash Receipts and Disbursements for the year ended on that date and have obtained all the information and explanations I have required. My examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion the accompanying Balance Sheet and Statement of Revenue and Expenditure are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the affairs of the Corporation as at 31st December, 1951, and the results of its operations for the year ended on that date, according to the best of my information and the explanation given to me and as shown by the books of the Corporation.

RECORD HIT BY APPLE EXPORTS

Canadian apples arriving at Singapore during the past season set a record of 32,500 boxes, and brought $175 thousand to British Columbia exporters. The last big year for Canadian apple exports was 1940 when 4,840 barrels were shipped. Then came restrictions on the import of apples from hard currency countries, restrictions which forced importers to buy through Hong Kong at appreciably higher prices. Apple purchases from Canada then averaged about 1,000 cases. The restrictions were lifted last September.

Malaya, with yearly requirements of 385 thousand boxes, usually imports 65 per cent of this amount from Australia. However, the apple season in Canada and the United States coincides with the off-period in the southern hemisphere and from November to March large quantities of apples arrive from Canada's West Coast.

Most Malaysians prefer green-skinned apples, partly because of Chinese taste and partly because they believe they keep better than red apples. Canadian apples have a reputation and, if supplies and shipping space were available, larger quantities could be sold.

Higher Pulp Yield

With the inevitable shift in our forest economy from virgin stands to second growth, the Canadian Forestry Association has followed with close attention the progress of research in second growth timber utilization. There is an urgent need for protection of this vital young asset in its struggle to achieve mature growth.

Now that pulp and paper production have become such an important factor in the forest industries of British Columbia, it is particularly interesting to note the results of research in this field on the Pacific coast.

Among the findings of researchers in the neighboring State of Washington it is reported that the replacement of old western hemlock and Douglas fir with second growth trees has resulted in higher yields of pulp by both unit weight and volume measure.

In the manufacture of kraft, where both these woods are used, second growth timber produces not only higher yields but slightly higher bursting tests, lower tear tests and higher brightness in bleaching, says a report to the Pacific Northwest Section of the Forest Products Research Society by Dr. Ben T. Briggs.

Recent U.S. Forest Products Laboratory experiments showed an increased yield, usually of 6 to 7 per cent, for either sulphite or kraft cooking with second growth.

Because there is more sapwood in ratio to heartwood in second growth, Dr. Briggs found it significant that tests in both his own and the Forest Products Laboratory had shown that there was roughly 5 per cent higher yield of paper pulps from sapwood than from heartwood. In the kraft industry results were about the same.

The Wise Gardener

Notes From Saanichon Experimental Station

The number of letters received at this station asking for information on the best spray for fruit trees indicates that many who have spray problems are not conversant with the basic principles involved.

Sprays, generally speaking, are specific for certain diseases and insects; therefore the kind of spray to use is important as no one will suit all conditions.

The application of a spray is based on the life history and susceptibility of the insect and disease in question; therefore, there is a definite time factor as well as a specific kind of spray. Some sprays can be mixed together so that they have fungicidal and insecticidal value and these are effective when it so happens that the insect and the disease are vulnerable at the same time.

Recommendations are clearly set forth in spray calendars for this coastal district covering both tree and small fruits. These calendars are free on request.

There is little reason to wait any longer to sow seeds such as lettuce, onion, radish, peas, broad beans, beet, carrot and spinach.

Indeed, many gardeners will have planted some of these last month. Nursery beds can be prepared in which sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli and kale will be sown. Later on in the month, we frequently have a spell of warm weather.

If such should be the case, try sowing some of the warmer season crops including beans, corn, cucumber and squash.

Above all, don't allow enthusiasm to overcome your better judgment and fill your garden full of seed now. If you do you will find that you have an oversupply of vegetables, such as lettuce, radish and spinach, and also room for later sowings of the root vegetables to be sown, such as turnips, carrots and beets.

The laid-down price in Canada of Scotch whiskey is $11.68 a case, or 97 cents a bottle.

ALTERNATIVE VOTING

WILL BE USED IN THE COMING PROVINCIAL ELECTION

HERE'S WHY THE NEW SYSTEM IS BEING USED

The Voting system has been changed to enable every voter to cast his ballot for more than one candidate in order of his preference.

When you vote under the Alternative Vote system YOU GET MORE THAN ONE CHOICE. This will prevent any candidate being elected on a minority vote as has happened in the past. The candidate so elected in each riding will have received an absolute majority over all other candidates combined.

IT'S FAIR!

HERE'S HOW YOU VOTE WITH ALTERNATIVE VOTING

The Alternative Vote is as simple as the voting system used before only, instead of marking an X against your one choice only, you can mark 1-2-3-4 with your first choice as number one, your second choice as number two and so forth in order of your preference.

IT'S EASY!

Further messages will appear in your daily and weekly newspapers explaining the Alternative Vote. Watch for them.

DAVID BROWN AWARDED ESSAY PRIZE IN PROVINCIAL CONTEST

David Brown, of Sidney, a student at North Saanich high school has been awarded first prize of $25 in the Nanaimo district for his entry in the essay contest sponsored by the B.C. Division of the Canadian Cancer Society.

Third prize, of $10, in the same district, has been awarded to Ann Muirhead, Clark Road, Brentwood, a student at Mount Newton high school.

First prize for the best essay in the province went to Joyce Sunderland, New Westminster, who is a pupil of Burnaby North high school. Announcing the prize-winners recently, R. B. Buckenfield, president of the B.C. Division, said that 160 essays had been received from schools throughout the province. Elmore Philpott, chairman of the education and publicity committee, said that because of the high calibre, judging the essays had been a difficult task for his committee.

For the purposes of awarding the prizes the province had been divided into 14 districts, corresponding roughly with the federal-electoral districts.

First, second and third prizes of $25, $15 and $10 had been awarded in each of these districts, plus an overall grand prize of $50 which was won by Joyce Sunderland.

SHOWER HONORS PROSPECTIVE BRIDE AT VICTORIA HOME

Mrs. J. Whitehead, Prospect Lake, and Mrs. T. Lidgate, Victoria, were joint hostesses last Thursday evening, April 10, at the home of the latter at a delightful cup and saucer shower in honor of Miss Joane Baillie, whose wedding takes place on Saturday next.

The bride-elect, to whom the affair was a great surprise, was fitted out, amid much laughter and merriment, with a lovely Easter bonnet, beautifully made by Mrs. Lidgate, of pink and blue crepe paper with ribbon streamers and blue forget-me-nots.

The mother of the prospective bride and groom received corsages of jonquils and heather, the guest of honor a silver maple leaf brooch as a lasting remembrance. Little Marilyn Whitehead, who is to be flower girl at the wedding, presented a large pink and blue basket filled with the lovely cups and saucers, and assisted the bride-elect to open them. Miss Baillie thanked all her friends for their kindness in a few well-chosen words.

Games and contests were enjoyed and a sit-down supper was served. The bride-elect presided over the long table which in complement to the bridesmaids' gowns was decorated in shades of blue and yellow with silver bowls of Easter lilies. Singing brought the happy evening to a close.
